GATHERING THOUGHT

THE FPCM WAY OF THE WEEK

16. GIVE CHEERFULLY. Rejoice, you get to give! Think of giving as a privilege rather than an obligation, a joy instead of a burden. As you consider all that's been entrusted to you—time, abilities, and money—ask, “How is God calling me to share what I've been given?”

“You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.” (II Corinthians 9:7)

“Give and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back.” (Luke 6:38)

CALL TO WORSHIP*

Elder Baker

Come, let us sing to the Lord. Let us make a joyful shout to the Rock of our salvation!

Let us come into God’s presence with thanksgiving. For the Lord is a great God and a great King above all things and all people.

In God’s hands are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are His also. The sea is God’s, for He made it; and so is the dry land, which His hands have formed.

Come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker. For the Lord is our God, and we are His people.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Righteous God, You have crowned Jesus Christ as Lord of all. We confess that we have not bowed before Him and are slow to acknowledge His rule over our lives. We give in too easily to the voices of this world. We fail to be guided by Your justice and love. In Your abundant mercy, forgive us. Help us to honor Jesus by allowing Him room in every part of our lives. For we belong, in life and in death, to Him alone. Amen.
