Way of the Week 14

GROW FAITH. Take advantage of every chance you have to form your faith—through small groups, classes, and personal study. Be a disciple and look to learn from those who know more of the Bible and Christian life than you do, then look for opportunities to share what you've gained with someone else. Read: Mark 8: 34; 2 Timothy 2: 2

GRACE NOTES

"Someone who knew what he was talking about once remarked that pain was the touchstone of all spiritual progress." - Bill Wilson, The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions WOULDN'T IT BE WONDERFUL if our faith in Christ grew best when we are at our best? What if faith grew strongest when we had it all together: when we loved the way we looked and felt like a million bucks, when everything was just right in our families, our marriages, our jobs and the world? You know the answer. If everything had to be aligned perfectly a) you probably wouldn't be thinking about God and b) perfect never comes.

Bill Wilson, co-founder of Alcoholics Anonymous, discovered the truth about how faith grows. As most plants require dirt to grow, so faith requires pain to grow. I might learn a lot from a Bible study or by reading a great book on theology but nothing has helped my dependence on God deepen like a crisis or a challenge. Ten years ago, my wife Leslie was diagnosed with an early form of breast cancer. Her doctors told her it was aggressive and she would need to undergo surgery and chemotherapy. Soon one surgery became three surgeries, and radiation therapy followed chemotherapy. Our boys were young then. I was, to be honest, overwhelmed with concern for my wife and our family.

One day, about four or five months into her treatments, I was talking with a man at my former church named Ron Cronise. Ron was a cancer survivor. He said to me, "This experience you're going through is going to strengthen your marriage and deepen your faith in God." OK, I thought, that's a good thing to remember. That same evening, I drove to a meeting here at FPC Moorestown. Bill Walker was there and his wife, Debbie is a breast cancer survivor. Bill looked at me and said, "This experience you're going through is going to strengthen your marriage and deepen your faith in God." Bill Walker and Ron Cronise don't know each other, though they said the identical thing I needed to hear. God used those two men to speak a word from God to me as clear as any I've heard. Bill and Ron were right. Leslie and I grew much closer and my faith went deeper than it had before.

Why is pain a necessary ingredient for spiritual growth? I think it's because pain drives me to my knees. Pain forces me to ask for support from my closest friends. Pain breaks any illusion that I can manage my life apart from God. God is the user of pain.

We're in painful times right now as a nation and world; and the pain could linger for a long time to come. Could these days be rich spiritual growth days for us? I pray that will be the case. This Way encourages you to take advantage of every opportunity you can find to Grow Faith. Don't forget that pain is the touchstone.

Stuart Spencer, Pastor

Coronavirus Update

In compliance with state and local government mandates related to COVID-19, our campus will remain CLOSED until further notice. All activities and events are suspended. Worship has moved to a 9:30 a.m. blended service, broadcast live from the sanctuary. For Holy Week we will live stream special services for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday Tenebrae, as well as three services on Easter. We have wonderful worship experiences planned! There is no accurate timetable for when we will be able to gather again, so for now, our ministry continues in this new rhythm. Until further notice, please do not enter the building. Only staff and a handful of volunteers who are assisting with worship are allowed in the building. We need to keep our building as clean and germ-free as possible for the virtual service. Thank you!

REMEMBER: Like our Facebook page for up-to-the-minute updates and information.

Blessing Box Donations

The Blessing Box has been seeing high traffic and as a result, donations are quickly depleted. If you can, on your next trip food shopping, please pick up a few items and leave them outside the church doors. You don't need to go into the church building; just leave the items outside. See our website for a complete list of suggested items.

Deacons Food Baskets

The Deacons switched gears quickly for their Easter Food Baskets, which are vital to families facing food shortages. Instead of purchasing the food which would need to be packed and delivered, the Deacons will be mailing grocery gift cards to the food basket recipients. Many thanks to Deacons Helen Dominy, Susan Horn and their fantastic team.

Special Session Meeting
Wed. April 15 ~ 6:00 p.m.*Great Lifesaving Effort!

Thank you FPC! The relocated Blood Drive on March 24 from a Church who had no heat to ours was a SUCCESS! 37 units were collected! This last-minute collaboration of two churches made this possible and the willingness to do the task at hand. No one had to be turned away because of an elevated temperature! Even despite the waiting time, people were happy to be out and doing something good. Thank you for allowing this to happen. Special thanks to Ken Wehn, who made three extra visits to make sure all was A-OK.

This Week's Family Activity: Sin and Salvation

PARENTS: This week's activity reminds us why we need rescuing, why we need a Savior! Because we were separated from God. What a terrible place to be. But because of the sacrifice of Jesus, God did not leave us there. He bridged the gap. Try this with your family. SUPPLIES NEEDED: Two pillows, a large room with enough space for your children to jump around.

Place the two pillows on the floor. Choose one pillow to represent people and another to represent God. Have your children stand on the "people pillow" and leave the "God pillow" open. As you talk about how people were created to be close to God, move the God pillow close so your children can easily step back and forth between the two pillows. When you mention sin and our separation from God, move the God pillow far enough away that your child can't jump to it, representing our inability to fix what sin did to our relationship with God. To illustrate how Jesus' death and resurrection paid the penalty for our sin, create a "bridge" between the two pillows using pillows or sheets and let your children walk freely across.

To say: When God created men and women, we were in a close relationship with Him (pillows close together.) However, when sin was introduced into the world, it created a big gap between us and God (pillows apart.) No matter what we try to do, we cannot fix the gap that sin created between us and God all by ourselves (kids try to jump to the empty pillow.) God sent His son Jesus – who never sinned – to come and pay the penalty for our sins. Jesus' death on the cross repaired the gap that sin created between God and us. (Connect the two pillows with your "bridge.") When we ask Jesus into our lives, we are forgiven of our sins and can enjoy a relationship with God. That's what we celebrate at Easter!

Communion on Palm Sunday, April 5th During 9:30 a.m. Live Stream Worship

Our Session authorized the celebration of the Lord's Supper for our Palm Sunday live stream worship service on April 5, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. Communion will be offered at the close of worship, following the sermon.

You and your family will need to prepare for the sacrament at home. Please prepare a small piece of bread and a small cup of juice for each person who will receive the Lord's Supper. Follow Pastor Spencer's directions during the live stream. Children are welcome to receive communion provided they are baptized and have received instruction as to the meaning of the Lord's Supper. Parents can contact Holly Asciutto, Director of Children's Ministries, for resources to use at home.

The Lord's Supper will also be offered during the live-streamed Maundy Thursday service on April 9, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.

When we gather at the Lord's Supper the Spirit draws us into Christ's presence and unites with the Church in every time and place. We join with all the faithful in heaven and on earth in offering thanksgiving to the triune God. We reaffirm the promises of our baptism and recommit ourselves to love and serve God, one another, and our neighbors in the world. (W-3.0409)

You can access the live stream through our website www.fpcmoorestown.org and use the Worship Guide that will be posted for your use.
