OF MOORESTOWN

Connections

First Presbyterian Church of Moorestown

May 3-10, 2020

Way of the Week 19

ACCEPT AND DON'T CAST STONES. God's love opens the doors of our church to all people. Just as Jesus did, welcome people as they are. It's not up to us to judge. Love unconditionally, and as Christ has received you, receive others.

Read: 1 Timothy 2; 6-7; Luke 15: 1-2; Romans 15: 7

GRACE NOTES

LAST SEPTEMBER, Marsha and I had the opportunity to see the Broadway production of To Kill a Mockingbird. The play was a rendition of Harper Lee's book that many, as I did, read in high school. As you may recall, the plot takes place in a small Alabama town that is suffering through the Great Depression. The main character, Atticus, is a prominent attorney who is widowed and has two children. Atticus defends an African American man who is falsely accused of sexually assaulting a young Caucasian woman. He confronts the racism and prejudice that is exemplified and threaded into the fabric of his community.

Atticus is characterized with absolute consistency. He is a person of high ethical standards and integrity. In spite of the rejection and threats that both he and his children face, he is committed to seeing that justice is served.

In spite of how horribly he is treated, he works to teach his children to seek out what is good in people, not to judge, and to forgive what is bad. He upheld a commitment to principled truth even when he and his children were rejected and ostracized.

The Bible tells us that God accepts us and welcomes us in spite of our sinful nature. When Jesus walked the earth he was a perfect example of accepting and loving others. Jesus, to the dismay of the Scribes and Pharisees showed overwhelming love and mercy to the underserved and judged. He accepted and loved even his persecutors.

Atticus did not reject those that worked to harm him. He worked to maintain an unconditional acceptance of them while not relinquishing his principles. Jesus told us to welcome and show love to all in spite of our differences, and in humility share the riches of God's Grace while proclaiming the truth of the Gospel.

Our church is to be a place where the love of Jesus is proclaimed and where all are welcomed.

This Week's Family Activity: "The Good Shepherd"

Dear Families,

I pray that you feel the loving arms of our Good Shepherd surrounding you and your family. As an additional devotion meditate on Psalm 23 before doing this activity with your family this week. Remember that "The Lord is my Shepherd ..." You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Love, Holly

Prepare: Print out or pull up on computer pictures of Buzz Lightyear, Olaf, Dory, Cookie Monster, Mary Poppins, and Jesus.

Read: John 10:3-4

Say: I am going to quote some popular phrases from some famous characters and then one real person. After I say the phrase, you have to do one thing to show me you know who said it. When you think you know the answer, I want you to "Baa" like a sheep. Are you ready?

(Go through each of the five phrases and allow kids the chance to "Baa" and then guess the answer. After they guess, show them the picture that goes with each phrase. Extra points if you use the character voices.)
