

ADULT SPIRITUAL FORMATION WEEK TWO: NOW IS THE TIME

Sunday September 26, 2021

ROMANS 13:8-14

⁸Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God’s law. ⁹ For the commandments say, “You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet.” These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”¹⁰ Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God’s law. ¹¹ This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. ¹³ Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don’t participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don’t let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

(New Living Translation)

⁸ Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹ For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,” and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” ¹⁰ Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. ¹¹ Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Discussion Questions:

1. The New Living Translation is the only one to use the word “obligation” – does the word help or hinder your understanding of the text, why?
2. How are acts of love a fulfillment of the law? What is your understanding of the law?
3. In verse 11, Paul writes, “the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed.” Why do you think Paul is writing with so much urgency? How can salvation be nearer?
4. Paul urges the people of Rome to embrace moral living, “put on the armor of light” and “put on Jesus Christ,” he says in verses 12 and 14. How does this connect to Paul’s earlier decree to “love your neighbor as yourself” in verse 10?
