- 4. ALWAYS ENCOURAGE AND CELEBRATE. Show gratitude and appreciation by regularly acknowledging the good works you see everywhere. Look for signs of spiritual growth and maturity among our members and staff. When you see it, point it out and rejoice. Pass on good reports that you hear about others.

Ideas for Action: Take a “criticism inventory.” Just how critical are you, really? Ask someone you love and trust to tell you how you’re doing in this area. Try a 24-hour fast from all forms of criticism - no complaining or criticism for an entire day.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Rev. Spencer

Holy God, Creator of all that is, Donor of Grace, and Giver of Life: hear our prayer.

There are chasms in our lives, deep valleys that separate us from one another and from You.

We confess that we have allowed those rifts to grow,

For fear of admitting our part in the separation; for fear of being rejected when we reach out.

You call us to a reconciled life, to healed relationships, to a wholeness with each other and with You.

Mend us, we pray, and make us new creations through the power and love of Christ, in Whose name we pray. Amen.

Silence for personal prayer

Assurance of Forgiveness

Give praise to the God Who is able to keep you from falling into sin. He will bring you into His heavenly glory without any fault. He will bring you there with great joy.

Give praise to the only God, our Savior. Glory, majesty, power and authority belong to Him. Give praise to Him through Jesus Christ, our Lord. His praise was before all time, continues now, and will last forever. Amen.
