Funeral

It is the wish of our committee to provide a time for hospitality and fellowship for family and friends following the worship service in the sanctuary. Space can be provided in our Fellowship Hall, or for a very small group of 50 people or less, in our Lounge and Hayes Room nearby. Easels and tables are available for family photos and memorabilia.

A minimum of three (3) days notice is kindly requested for arranging a memorial reception.

All receptions are arranged buffet style. Refreshments can be provided in the following options ...

STANDARD

- Coffee, tea and punch or juice
- Fruits and mixed nuts
- Cookies and finger desserts
- Tea sandwiches
- Cheese and crackers
- Vegetable plate and dip

EXTRA

- All of the STANDARD plus:
- If a full meal is requested, that would need to be ordered from a caterer and the family would be asked to cover the cost.

- ♦ There are four teams of volunteers, each headed by a member of our Funeral Committee. One of them will contact you to discuss your special wishes.
- ♦ Chairs are placed around the room and several round tables are provided for those who wish to sit. Food is placed on center tables buffet style. There are separate tables for punch and hot beverages.
- ♦ The central tables have a floral centerpiece, tables are covered in tablecloths and appropriate paper plates, cups and napkins are provided.
- ♦ Many of the deserts and sandwiches are lovingly made and donated by our church members. The committee purchases the remainder of the food and all of the paper goods as well as additional food items.
- ♦ Donations allow us to continue this important service and aid our grieving families. Checks may be made out to First Presbyterian Church of Moorestown with "Funeral Committee" in the memo line. Special arrangements can be worked out for unusual circumstances.

We are here to assist you through a difficult time as you say goodbye to your loved one. Please do not hesitate to reach out with questions.
