Welcome and Work of God's People

Rev. Wes Allen

Way of the Week Video – Rev. Wes Allen

23. WORSHIP WITH YOUR WHOLE HEART. Your life is meant to be an act of worship. Every breath, action, and thought flows from God and can bring Him glory. Praise God everywhere and embrace the opportunities to regularly worship with your church family.

Ideas for Action: Every morning this week recite the Jesus Creed: “Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.” The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ (Mark 12:29–31)

Call to Worship

Rev. Stuart Spencer

Jesus said to them, “The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness may not overtake you.”

“Arise, shine; for your light has come; and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.”

“If you walk in the darkness, you do not know where you are going.”

“For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon us, and His glory will appear over us.”

“While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light.”
Nations shall come to our Light, and kings to the brightness of our dawn.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Rev. Allen

Save us, glorious Christ, from every false understanding and motivation.
Save us from the temptation to just stay on the mountain.
Save us from the temptation to never engage.
Save us from the temptation of trying to capture and control Your power and glory.
You are Mystery; You are Holy; You are God.
Hear our confession as we bow in wonder and worship.

Assurance of Forgiveness (responsive)

Rev. Allen

The grace of Christ is never deserved but always intentional. Receive this grace, intended for you and me—it has our names on it—this all-sufficient grace that turns our weakness, which has our names on it too, into God’s power, that made us in His image and remakes us into the image of Christ.
Praise God from Whom all blessings flow!

Scripture Reading

Luke 24:28-35 (NLT)

By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus acted as if he were going on; ²⁹ but they begged him, “Stay the night with us since it is getting late.” So he went home with them. ³⁰ As they sat down to eat, he took the bread and blessed it. Then he broke it and gave it to them. ³¹ Suddenly, their eyes were opened; and they recognized him. And at that moment, he disappeared!

³²They said to each other, “Didn’t our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?” ³³And within the hour, they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them, ³⁴who said, “The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter.” ³⁵Then the two from Emmaus told their story of how Jesus had appeared to them as they were walking along the road and how they had recognized him as he was breaking the bread.

The Love Feast

Revs. Spencer & Allen

The Love Feast, or Agape Meal, is a Christian fellowship meal recalling the meals Jesus shared with the disciples during his ministry and expressing the fellowship of welcome, forgiveness, and peace enjoyed by the family of Christ. The Pastors share baskets of bread. Pass the basket. As you do so, look at the person next to you and say, “With [love, peace, gratitude or hope], I share this bread with you.” Then take and eat the bread, and rejoice. Christ the Lord is risen!

*Affirmation of Faith

Rev. Spencer

This is the Good News that we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved: Christ died for our sins, was buried, and was raised on the third day. He appeared first to the women, then to Peter, then to the twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe Jesus is the Christ, the anointed One of God, the firstborn of all creation, the firstborn from the dead, in Whom all things hold together, in Whom the fullness of God was pleased to dwell by the power of the Holy Spirit. Christ is the Head of the Body, the Church, and by the cross, reconciles all things to God. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.
