Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Way of the Week

4. ALWAYS ENCOURAGE AND CELEBRATE. Show gratitude and appreciation by regularly acknowledging the good works you see everywhere. Look for signs of spiritual growth and maturity among our members and staff. When you see it, point it out and rejoice. Pass on good reports that you hear about others.

The feelings of love, encouragement, appreciation, and celebration are meant to be shared. As the Prayer of Saint Francis reminds us, “For it is in giving that we receive.” I believe that if you feel something beautiful and loving in your heart for someone, you need to tell them. Those words are not meant for you to keep. My favorite poet, Mary Oliver, wrote these sage words: “Instructions for living a life. Pay attention. Be astonished. Tell about it.”

Don’t hesitate to express your joy, as the moment might slip away. Try to keep childlike wonder, finding beauty and optimism in the world. Your words are powerful and can uplift, heal, and inspire. Encouraging and celebrating others is an expression of God’s love.
