Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Way of the Week

6. FORGIVE...AGAIN. Just as God forgives us, heal relationships by extending forgiveness with grace and generosity. Forgive everyone everything. Start by praying for those you resent or hate. Ask for every blessing you would want for the one you're struggling to forgive.

For me, the true beauty of God's grace is that it never runs out. Daily I find myself asking for forgiveness; and I know am able to do so because of the confidence given to me knowing that Christ's sacrifice is always enough. Similarly, I know that as the Body of Christ, we are called to be willing to forgive one another, and those outside of our church just as frequently. Although not easy to do, forgiveness is crucial to repairing relationships, growth, and learning. To live out this way, "Forgive...Again", should be a part of our daily prayers, asking for the strength to be more holy, more Christ-like, and more humble, for the sake of our community, relationships, and world.
