Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Way of the Week

8. JUMP IN. Life is full of unexpected problems and needs, large and small. Pay attention to moments when God calls you to action, no matter how ordinary or extraordinary the situation may be. See “disruptions” as invitations to share Christ’s love. Write a note. Visit the sick or the grieving. Share a meal.

I enjoy this Way of the Week because it’s how I approach my spiritual life. I am always willing and ready to volunteer where I am needed to assist as my path to be a better Christian. What I didn’t realize was the impact it has on other people. This summer I was in crisis and needed the assistance from my fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. The result was amazing. Without hesitation, they helped me out. For them, it may have been a small thing; but for me, it was huge. You can make a big impression on other people. Don’t hesitate. Jump IN. I know I will continue to; and my hope is that everyone at FPC Moorestown take this to heart and be a good Christian and just JUMP IN.
