Second Sunday of Christmas

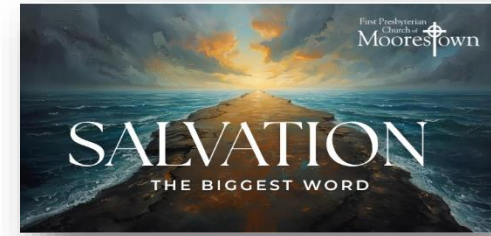

Way of the Week

15. WELCOME CHANGE. Be curious about new ideas, perspectives, and approaches. Get excited by the possibilities that change can bring. What worked in the past won't always work in the future, for God is doing new things.

Though sometimes somewhat difficult and often very challenging, change is inevitable, so to welcome change or a welcome change means that change can ultimately be for the good, a time for personal development and perhaps a time to escape dull routines, despite the risks. With God's guidance, we can embrace uncertainty and imperfection and enjoy new experiences, which contribute to a meaningful life. Not all change is easy, but I am thankful for the many blessings I have received because I have tried to maintain the attitude that change can be excellent.
