First Sunday in Lent

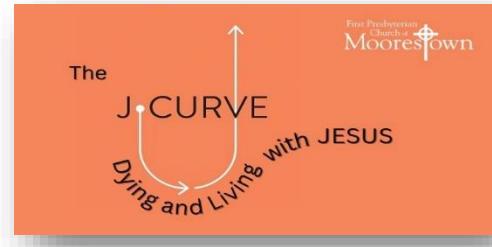

Way of the Week

- 22. REST AND REFLECT. Make time in your week to step back from work, school, and stressful demands. Since Christ has freed us, we no longer have to be obsessively driven. Take a walk, play, nap, meet up with friends, share a meal, or just take some time in solitude.

I found out the hard way that in our fast-paced world, it's hard to just stop. For weeks, maybe months, my "to do" lists were long and my time was short. I worked hard, but I simply couldn't do it all. One Sunday morning I was too exhausted—physically, mentally, or spiritually—to get out of bed. That morning, I said to God, "I give up." I was forced to hand over my responsibilities to others. I surrendered everything—my worries, my concerns, my "to do" lists—to God. It took time to recover; but I discovered God is God and I'm not—What a relief! God was more than able to carry me through. Whether you are involved in church activities or juggling everyday responsibilities, you need to stop and rest. Don't wait until you burn out. Take time to fix your eyes on Jesus. Receive His strength and peace by faith. Discover His joy is your strength.
